STATEMENT OF SUBSTANCE OF INTERVIEW AND RESPONSE TO EXAMINER'S COMMENT

The undersigned would like to thank Examiner Brown for extending the courtesy of a telephonic interview on June 7, 2010 to discuss this case. The pending claims were discussed during the interview. No specific prior art references were discussed during the interview. No exhibit was shown, and no demonstration was conducted.

Examiner Brown and the undersigned agreed on an amendment in which claims 1-4, 6, 9, 70, 72, 76, 77, and 83-84 would be cancelled without prejudice. This amendment would result in the remaining claims being allowed. The amendment is accurately portrayed in the Examiner's Amendment. No other pertinent matters were discussed during the interview. Applicant acknowledges and appreciates the Notice of Allowance that was mailed July 8, 2010.

This communication is being filed concurrently with payment of the corresponding Issue Fee. The application is believed to be in condition for grant, and Applicant requests prompt attention thereto.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional filing fees required and/or to credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 06-1910. Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned if believed to be useful to advance prosecution.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: October 8, 2010
